Rules

1. No responsibility is accepted by the Betley Show Committee for any accident, injury, loss, damage, illness to spectators, horses, ponies, riders or their property, however caused. Competitors are advised that they should have their own public liability and equine insurance.
2. All riders must wear the correct riding gear and up to date protective hats. Back protectors are recommended in jumping classes.
3. The judges decision is final and always correct.
4. All entries must be paid in full before horses can enter the ring and are non-refundable.
5. All in hand and ridden competitors with stallions must be 16 years of age or over. On entering they must produce the animal stud book number and a copy of the animals insurance policy.
6. All classes will be run as scheduled. No class can be held up for exhibitors entered in other classes which have overrun.
7. We reserve the right to split classes should numbers prove it necessary.
8. The Committee reserves the right to expel from the ring any horse not under sufficient control of the rider/handler.
9. Anyone deemed to be behaving in an inappropriate manner will be asked to leave the Show Ground.
